A candidate may claim exemption in a prescribed subject having passed it or its equivalent subject of other autonomous institute, Board or university.

A) Automatic exemptions:

i) A candidate, whose overall result is "Fail / ATKT ", shall earn automatic exemption at the subsequent examination, in the subjects or passing heads in which he has passed.

ii) Exemptions for subjects passed in examinations of other institute/Board/University:

A candidate who has passed fully the prescribed or its equivalent examination of a recognized Board / University in the subject/s recommended by the Equivalence Committee from time to time, shall, at his option, be entitled to claim exemption in such course/s.

Candidate shall not be eligible for claiming exemptions later, on the strength of having passed the subjects after the date of his admission. Candidate so exempted shall not be entitled to award of class. Exemption so admissible will lapse if not claimed at the first attempt at the examination of the institute.

For claiming exemption the candidate shall apply to HOD/AQAC/EC/Equivalence Committee in the prescribed form. Such application shall be submitted through the HOD before last date prescribed by the institute along with supporting documents and necessary fees if applicable. Forms received after due date shall not be considered.

The performance of the candidate in the subjects he has not claimed the exemptions in, shall be cancelled permanently. If the candidate does not reappear in the examination for these subjects, he shall be marked absent. This facility shall be available for theory papers only.

B) Passing the Missing and Backlog Subject:

i) If a candidate is permitted to change the course, at any stage, he will have to appear for backlog subject, if any, of the lower year of the course.

ii). In case of revision of curriculum, the ex-candidates belonging to the old curriculum and admitted to next higher semester/year of new revised curriculum, shall be required to appear for the examination of missing courses.

iii) The candidate who is admitted directly to second year/third semester or higher level stage shall appear for examination for backlog courses/s, if any of the lower semester/year(s) of the programme. Such candidate shall submit examination form along with the prescribed examination fees for the lower semester/year(s).

iv) Exemption Related To Change Of Programme: If a candidate has been granted a change of Programme by the Directorate of Technical Education, seeks exemptions in the equivalent/common subject/s in new programme on the basis of having passed such subject/s in examination of previous course conducted by the institute, he shall be eligible for such exemption.

C) One-Time Opportunity to complete the term in old curriculum:

Whenever institute revises curriculum and there is major change in the Teaching and Examinations schemes, in opinion of the Board of Studies, the institute shall provide option of one time opportunity to all the failure candidates of old curriculum to complete their term in old curriculum. However, such candidates shall be eligible to appear for the examination only on fulfillment of the rules for admission to the examination as applicable.

ER-5 Ex-Candidate

A candidate, who fulfills the conditions prescribed hereunder and is certified by the Head of the Department as eligible for admission to a semester examination, shall be called ex-candidate for subsequent examinations of that semester, if after such certification the candidate does not appear or appears and fails in that semester examination.

Admission of Ex-Candidate to Examination

i) An ex-candidate, except where he has failed only in term work, shall be entitled, without having to keep fresh terms and fulfill conditions of admission to the examination anew.

ii) A candidate, who has failed at the previous examination in the term work, shall have to rejoin the institute and put in fresh term work, in which he has previously failed, to the satisfaction of the head of the Department for being eligible to reappear in that examination.

iii) A candidate who is ex candidate of the institute and who has Successfully completed the term of any course examination and who has taken away his leaving certificate will cease to be a candidate of the institute. However if such ex candidate desires to appear any semester/year examination to which he is otherwise eligible to appear can apply for admission to the examination.

For doing so he will have to deposit his latest leaving certificate or transfer certificate temporarily and a affidavit stating the reasons for gap at the institute If such candidate passes the examination or becomes eligible for higher semester, the prevailing rules for admission to higher year shall apply.

ER-6. Assessment of Term Work / Sessional / Practical / Project Work / Oral/Any other head

A) Assessment

(i) For term work/Practical/Project Work, oral or any other head a schedule of dates shall be prepared for the completion of individual drawing sheets, designs, jobs, laboratory journals, projects, etc. The various assignments of the term work shall be duly completed and collected as per the schedule and submitted for assessment to the examiner.

Practical / Term work / Sessional work shall be assessed progressively, from time to time.

(iii) The term work/ Practical/Project Work of a candidate abstaining from an examination, shall be preserved by the candidate himself and presented for examination when the candidate next appears therein.

(iv) The Principal/Head of the institute on the recommendation of HOD shall issue the order/list of the disallowed/detained candidates immediately after the end of the term and before the commencement of the Theory or Practical examination whichever is earlier.

(v) Term work and performance at practical/oral examination shall be assessed on the basis of the candidate's depth of comprehension of the principles involved and not on the basis of mere collection of data for presentation.

Embellishment, thus, is not expected and will not be given credit. When practical/ oral/ project/ term work/ sessional as applicable in any subject is assessed, the marks shall be carried over to subsequent examination, unless the candidate has failed to secure passing marks in which case the candidate shall be permitted to appear at subsequent examination without joining the institute again for the purpose except in case of failure in term work when he shall be required to join the institute for another term and put in fresh term work.

Marks obtained in the class test shall also be similarly carried over to the subsequent examination except in the case of those who appear for fresh test at the subsequent time for improving the test marks, (if applicable), the latter taken into account at the subsequent examination.

A candidate whose marks are thus carried over is eligible for award of class.

B) Procedure to deal with wrong certification of incomplete term-work etc. of a candidate:

In case, an external examiner reports that the laboratory practical Term work / sessional etc. are incomplete, then such information with detailed report of the external examiner along with written explanation of Internal examiner / Subject Teacher and COE of Institute shall be put before the Special Committee for consideration and decision prior to declaration of result, wherever possible. Else the result of such institute for that course & / semester shall be held in reserve till the special committee gives its decision.

C) Procedure to deal with deficient conduct of term-work etc. :

If the examiners detect cases where Laboratory Practicals / Term-work / Project are incomplete but HOD has certified the same as complete and allowed candidates to appear for examination, the COE shall enquire into such matter and report of all such cases shall be submitted to the Special Committee

Principal of the institute for due action against the Subject Teacher as per the decision of special committee.

In addition to this, the Principal shall report all such cases to the Director of Technical Education and Government for further action against the faculty as may deem fit.

D) Failure in Term Work

A Candidate, who has failed in any of term work examination, wherever prescribed for any semester/year examination, shall be admitted to the succeeding semester/year, if otherwise eligible. However, such candidate shall submit fresh term work by rejoining institute in related course/s in which he has failed, for subsequent examination.

ER-7. Conduct of Examination and Result Processing

A) Examination Period and Timetable

The dates of commencement of examinations shall be as indicated in the academic calendar of the institute, circulated to all HOD's. The detailed timetable of an examination will be declared to all three weeks prior to the commencement of the examination.
